Admissions Screening

Date Scheduled: _____

Once all forms have been received, the Admissions Coordinator will call to schedule an appointment for testing. All new students and students returning after an absence longer than one year are required to complete academic testing.

Family Interview

Date Scheduled: _____

After the student has satisfactorily completed an admissions screening, the office will contact parents to schedule a family interview with the admissions team. Students in grades 7-12 are encouraged to attend the interview.

Acceptance and Registration Fee

Payment Date: _____

Families will be notified of the admissions decision by letter following the interview. Upon acceptance, parents have ten days to remit a $150.00 per student registration fee. Tuition contracts and additional student forms will be distributed after the enrollment fee has been received. Those forms and the first tuition payment must be returned before the student is officially enrolled and allowed to attend classes.
